HEAVY VOTE BEING CAST OVER STATE

Fine Weather Prevails and Much Interest is Manifested

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Include Number of Propositions in Many Cities to Be Decided by Franchise and Count Will Be Slow.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Nov. 4.—Fine weather and spirited municipal campaigns in all of the larger cities and towns brought out an unprecedented heavy forenoon vote in today's election, according to reports collected at the state capital. Because of the large number of ballots that must be stamped by each individual the voting was tedious in several cities, including Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo, Akron and Newark.

On this account it was doubtful if the results in these cities would be known before a late hour.

At Democratic state headquarters in this city the statement was made by Chairman Finley that the Democrats expected to hold practically all of the cities which went Democratic two years ago.

Republican leaders at the state capital made no positive claims, but asserted that they had good grounds for believing that Cincinnati would be swept back into the Republican column and that other gains would be recorded.

The betting odds in Columbus hotels and cafes was said to favor the election of Hunt at Cincinnati, Baker at Cleveland and Karb at Columbus.

The "dry" forces were considerably in evidence at the polls at many points, notably in Columbus, where preachers and women were active in the campaign for the initiative statute to prohibit the shipment of liquor into dry territory.

Opposition to the $5,000,000 bond prevention bond issue appeared today and the fate of the bond issue appeared to be very doubtful. It was generally believed that the vote in this city was going against the short ballot and against the small legislature.

Seven states hold elections today. Three, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia, choose governors. Maryland elects a United States senator and state controller; Pennsylvania two superior court judges; Kentucky two circuit judges and legislature; New York nine supreme court justices, chief judge of court of appeals, associate judge, assembly and two state senators. New Jersey also selects a new legislature. Congressmen are to be elected in four districts—Third Massachusetts; Thirtieth and Twentieth New York; and Third Maryland. Many cities choose new officers, notably New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

The betting odds in the Columbus mayoralty fight favored Karb. It was generally predicted that none of the three leading parties in the contest would elect its entire ticket. The indications were that the Socialist vote would fall far below that of two years ago when Eby, Socialist for mayor, polled 19,000 votes.

POLICE GUARD VOTING BOOTHS IN NEW YORK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Nov. 4.—The registered voters in greater New York, numbering 669,762, began gradually at six o'clock this morning to visit their respective polling places to decide for themselves the mayoralty issue and the merits of hundreds of other office seekers, including candidates for the state assembly and the city board of aldermen.

The weather was unsettled and rain was probable before the closing of the polls at 5 o'clock this afternoon, but interest in the campaign was believed to have been aroused to such a pitch that the weather was not regarded as likely to prove a factor in the contest. Tammany and anti-Tammany leaders expect a record percentage of the registered voters to make use of the franchise.

Extraordinary precautions were taken to prevent illegal voting and any intimidation of voters at the polls. Police Commissioner Walter Long before daybreak had ordered every police captain in the five boroughs of the city transferred to some other precinct with instructions to stay at his new post until eight o'clock on Wednesday morning. It is the first time since the consolidation of the boroughs into Greater New York that the captains as well as patrolmen have been subject to such orders on election day. Seven hundred detectives and plain clothes men were assigned to run

Come to the Advocate Tonight and Witness Full Election Returns

If you expect to come down town tonight to see the election returns on the big screen in front of The Advocate office, you will have plenty of time to take an after-dinner siesta of a couple of hours and then get down early enough to receive the first returns.

Clerk Michael Sachs of the election board believes that it will be 9 o'clock, possibly later, before any of the returns begin to come in.

Judges and clerks in the various city precincts have been directed to count the municipal and subway ballots first. Both will be counted before any returns are sent to the election board. Then they will be sent in by special messenger.

It is predicted that many of the clerks, particularly in the larger precincts, will be kept busy until long after midnight before the count is completed.

It will be a tremendous task to count the seven ballots and no one realizes this more than the clerks themselves. They are prepared for a long night's work and will be pleasantly disappointed if they are able to finish by 12 o'clock.

As usual, The Advocate will render the same excellent bulletin service which has given this paper the reputation of providing the best for its readers.

The Associated Press wire in The Advocate office will be kept working throughout the evening and this great news gathering agency will of course maintain its reputation of furnishing the most accurate and complete returns of every political battle of any importance.

Not only will this wire service give the first and the best news from all Ohio cities but it will furnish reliable bulletins regarding the political contests in the east, in which hundreds of Newark people are interested.

The Advocate's stereopticon will be in good hands, the bulletins will be written on typewriters and will be perfectly legible. These bulletins will be thrown upon the screen suspended over West Main street, as rapidly as they are received.

You are invited.

The License Commissioners Will Soon Name Successful Applicants for Saloons

With a few hours remaining in which to determine who shall not have liquor licenses in this county, the board of license commissioners announced Tuesday morning that less than a half dozen applications had yet to be determined upon before the full quota of sixty had been granted. Newark is to have fifty-five saloons, Utica four and Buckeye Lake one.

Just 100 anxious applicants for liquor license in this county will know their fates Wednesday, and on the same day thousands of applicants and their families elsewhere over the state will receive like information. Meanwhile, state and county license commissioners are busily concluding their task of weeding out the undesirable, to the limit allowed each county and municipality under the new license law of the state.

Chairman J. N. Wright and Secretary O. C. Larason, comprising the Licking county commission, were out of town Monday in connection with their official duties preparatory to announcing the names of successful applicants.

While there will be sixty applications granted, this number is four less than the allowance for the county. Fallsburg township and Hanover village were entitled to one saloon each, and Hanover township was entitled to two. However, there were no applicants from those places.

There is certain to be forty disappointed applicants in Licking county. The only question is: Which forty?

The Liberal Advocate, the official organ of the Ohio Liquor League, Columbus, says in its issue of September 10, in speaking of the work of the county licensing board:

"There are going to be some disappointments, and some just ones, too, if we are not mistaken. On the other hand, there is to fear the situation which might ensue were undesirable to be given licenses. It is highly probable that in the granting of 5,000 more saloon licenses in the state, several will get recognition who should not receive the same. And it is likewise true that some good applicants will be turned down."

"We can no more than trust that there will be no serious complications arise, and that those who are so unfortunate as to lose out, will look at the matter philosophically, and not do the 'sour grapes' act."

farm and they have chosen the Madison County site.

"As the prisoners themselves will build the prison the expense to the state will be small. The old site in Columbus will be sold. Its value has been estimated at all the way from $200,000 to $600,000. At any rate, it will pay for the farm and for more than the amount of equipment we shall need to begin work."

"The work will be started just as soon as we can obtain possession of the farm."

"Men who have investigated along scientific lines are agreed there is no 'criminal class.' We have defectives and delinquents, men to whom nature has been unkind, men whose mental powers are weak and who are not to be included. Men are not criminals because of mental and physical characteristics. The so-called criminals are men who have got into the wrong course of life."

"We find that the farm is absolutely necessary in saving the man who has done wrong and who goes to prison. Man needs sunshine and fresh air just as a plant does."

"Ohio's new penitentiary is going to be operated along the lines of scientific penology. We intend to operate it on a business basis, but, above all, we are going to make men. And not only shall we have those who are sent to it, but we are going to make an intelligent effort to find out why men commit crimes."

"We intend to try to learn the causes that lead men into the wrong course, and if we can learn these causes, society can begin the work of removing the causes."

Heavy Vote Cast.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Nov. 4.—William Sulzer, deposed governor, accompanied by a bodyguard today made an early tour of the Sixth Assembly district from which he seeks election to the state assembly on the Progressive ticket. He visited nearly all of the polling places and at most of them was greeted with cheers. A heavy vote was being cast.

POLICE GIVE UP BADGES

Say They Will Lose Positions Rather Than Ride Street Cars

SITUATION UNCHANGED

In the Indianapolis Strike and No Cars are Running Today—Mayor Issues a Warning to the Fire Arm Dealers.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—Thirty patrolmen of the Indianapolis force turned in their badges today rather than ride on street cars and protect strikebreakers. A squad of 50 more policemen detailed to guard a car which was made ready to start protested so strongly against riding on the cars that the effort to resume traffic was abandoned and the police returned to patrol duty on the streets. Members of the police force joined in the cheering which followed the order sending the strikebreakers back to the barns.

Means of preventing rioting are being discussed by Sheriff Porteous and a committee of business men named by the sheriff as deputies summoned yesterday.

Mayor Shank defended a policeman who had been ordered to turn in his badge for refusing to board a car to aid strikebreakers. The mayor ordered the policeman to return to patrol duty. "I took this stand because I do not believe it is the duty of a policeman to run these cars," said the mayor. "It is his duty to protect lives and property, and not to operate or assist in operating the cars of the street car company."

The mayor said if charges were brought against the police for refusing to ride on cars, he would defend them before the trial board.

One car was manned by strikebreakers this morning and given a heavy guard of policemen. After a short deliberation however, officers of the company ordered the strikebreakers back to the barns and no effort was made to start the car.

Special precautions against violence in the street car strike were taken today in the fear that the additional crowds on the streets due to the partial holiday of election day would result in some serious trouble. Many of the police who have been on their feet most of the time since Friday night rested last night and almost the full force was on duty today. The special deputies appointed yesterday by Sheriff Porteous also prepared to be ready to defend the peace.

Robert I. Todd, president of the traction company said no effort would be made to resume car service. A special warning was issued by Mayor Shank urging dealers in fire arms and keepers of pawn shops to refuse to sell any fire arms or ammunition. The mayor warned the public not to approach portions of the city where unruly persons might engage in controversies.

"Women and children especially should not frequent those portions of the city where rioting might be expected," he said.

FIRE DESTROYS BUILDING AT ADA COLLEGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Ada, O., Nov. 4.—The main administration building of the Ohio Northern University was totally destroyed by fire today. Only hard work by the local fire department saved the adjoining Brown Auditorium and nearby residences. The library and many valuable records are lost. The great pipe organ is ruined. The loss will total upwards of one hundred thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown.

THE MINISTER OF URUGUAY GREETED COL. ROOSEVELT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Montevideo, Nov. 4.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today and was met by the Uruguayan minister of foreign affairs. The members of the foreign diplomatic corps and representatives of the leading educational bodies and clubs of Montevideo were also on hand to welcome Mr. Roosevelt.

WOMAN AGED 56 SUICIDES.

Greenwich, Conn., Nov. 4.—Miss Gertrude Miles, aged 56, committed suicide at her boarding house here last Saturday, it was learned today, by hanging from her bedstead. It had been previously given out that death was caused by apoplexy.

Little is known of Miss Miles here. Her father was William B. Miles, at one time a prominent brewer of New York.

HEAVY VOTE BEING CAST OVER CITY

With fine weather prevailing to encourage those who chose to exercise their right of citizenship by casting their ballots in the municipal election, there were early indications of a heavy vote, Tuesday. The importance of the issues at stake, which has been thoroughly drilled into the public mind throughout the past several weeks, helped to draw out the voters, and at two o'clock a canvass of a half dozen central precincts showed a heavy vote.

In comparison with past elections there was a goodly representation of women exponents of equal rights.

It was estimated that an average of nearly 50 per cent of the registered vote had turned out up to noon. In view of the fact that the last hour and a half previous to the hour for closing the polls is usually a time for making up deficiencies in the voting strength, election "dopers" anticipated close to the complete registered vote throughout the city.

This is in keeping with the condition existing all over the state, according to the Advocate's Associated Press news reports.

In the following precincts, the vote up to two o'clock was:

Fifth ward—A—120 votes out of a registration of 241. Ten women registered, three had voted.

Fifth ward—B—117 votes out of a registration of 205. Sixteen women registered, four had voted.

Fifth ward—C—155 votes out of a registration of 211. Ten women had voted.

Fifth ward—D—119 votes out of a registration of 195. Twenty-six women registered, thirteen had voted.

Third ward—B—163 votes out of 267 registered. Six women registered, four had voted.

Third ward—C—119 votes out of 185 registered. Five women registered, two had voted.

Second ward—A—83 votes out of 194 registered. Sixteen women registered, eight had voted.

Little groups of interested citizens were to be found near each voting place discussing the merits of the various candidates and propositions up for the people's consideration, always careful to keep the required distance away from the voting booths.

Interest in the trend of affairs was manifest everywhere. A flood of inquiries was to be heard on all sides, as the chances of some particular candidate or proposition appeared to wane or revive.

Preparations have been made at the office of the county board of deputy supervisors of elections for handling returns and tabulating the vote as early as possible. Owing to the number of separate ballots, it is almost certain the task will be a tedious one, but election officials are confident that despite the heavy vote the full returns will be in by midnight.

WITNESSED EATING OF MISSIONARIES BY THE CANNIBALS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Mexico City, Nov. 4.—The Rev. Edmund A. Nevill, an Episcopal minister here, died at Puebla, last night while traveling to Mexico City after a visit to the United States. In the United States he held charges in Sedalia, Mo., Cincinnati and New Albany and Muncie, Ind.

Rev. Mr. Nevill once attracted wide attention because of his experience with cannibals in New Guinea where he was a missionary. He witnessed the killing and eating of his fellow-missionaries by the savages who kept him prisoner a year and a half.

WOMAN MUST HANG WITH ACCOMPLICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Bessie J. Wakefield and James Plew, were sentenced in the Superior court by Judge Burpee this afternoon. They will be hanged at the state prison here on March 4 next, for the murder of William Wakefield, the woman's husband.

No woman prisoner has been hanged in this state since 1786. Mrs. Wakefield's counsel will appeal to Governor Baldwin to commute the sentence. Wakefield was killed at his home in Cheshire, Conn., last June. Plew turned state's evidence and confessed that he had conspired with Mrs. Wakefield to murder her husband. While she took her three children for a walk, he shot the husband, then tied a rope around the neck to give the appearance of suicide.

Plew is a member of the famous Jackson family, which scientists say produced more than 1,000 defectives. When arraigned, Plew pleaded guilty to homicide under the ancient statute of 1647, which dispenses with a jury and permits the court to determine the degree of guilt. With one exception, this was the first time in 200 years that the statute had been invoked. Neither Plew nor Mrs. Wakefield showed much emotion during the trial.

NEWARK MEN TAKE DEGREE OF SHRINERS

Over 1,700 people assembled in the Masonic Temple in Columbus on Monday, when the annual meeting of the Shrine was held, and was followed by a reception and banquet.

A class of 100 candidates was initiated, 10 of them being from Newark. Among those from this city who took the degree of the shrine are: James Rutledge, Moritz Ankler, I. B. Lanley, Henry Hoiler, William Taiter, Albert Guckert, Walter Sperry, Fred G. Davis and John Green and Charles Robinson of Granville.

ITALIAN GIRL MURDERED IN HER KITCHEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Samuel Cato, thirty-seven years old, was murdered today in the kitchen of her flat in the Italian quarter. The girl was slain by the six-year-old child of the slain woman and police found her lying dead on the floor with the sliver of a knife had been used still sticking in her body. A neighbor who was watching and crying in a nearby room of water, Mrs. Cato had been killed and the child when she was attacked. The murderer was still to be a young man wearing a gray sweater and gray trousers.

Novel Election.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—Bright sunshine weather ushered in the day for Virginia's novel election. The balloting is for governor and there is but one candidate—Henry C. Stuart, a Democrat. The lack of a contest led to a general apathy throughout the state and a light vote was expected.

The political managers fully expected that country voters would take advantage of the good weather to remain at home.

DENIAL OF ULTIMATUM TO MEXICO

Sec. Bryan Says Unfortunate Credence Should be Given Report

KEEP TROOPS MOVING

Toward the Border Just the Same—Government Officials Silent Over the Situation—President in Conference.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) On Board President Wilson's Train, Baltimore, Nov. 4.—No word of comment was available from President Wilson today on the ultimatum demanding Huerta's resignation. The president gave no evidence of being worried over the situation and is calmly awaiting Huerta's reply. The president was to be in Princeton but two hours planning to vote for James F. Fielder, the Democratic candidate for governor.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Nov. 4.—Late today Secretary of State Bryan issued a statement. He declined to discuss the use of the word "ultimatum," "note" or "advice," saying he had no more to say than the statement itself conveyed. It was as follows: "I have made it a rule not to discuss newspaper reports concerning international matters, but the nature of the dispatches from Mexico this morning suggest a departure from the rule at this time. No ultimatum has been sent to Mexico and it is unfortunate that the press should give credence to such a report. The harm done by speculation or even inaccuracies in regard to domestic questions is limited because the people are acquainted with the subject and can make allowances; but as misstatements in regard to international matters may lead to serious consequences, I feel justified in making the above denial."

Discussion of the possibility that President Wilson might again take the Mexican situation to congress in a personal address was revived in administration circles again today. Secretary Bryan flatly refused to discuss the situation when inquiries were made concerning the demand for the immediate retirement of Huerta. Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, after a conference with Secretary of State Bryan said: "I consider the situation to be nearer a conclusion. We are very hopeful that things will turn out well."

Secretary Daniels reiterated today that the three battleships of the second division of the Atlantic fleet will remain in Mexican gulf waters until further orders, notwithstanding that four battleships of the third division are due at Vera Cruz and Tampico tomorrow.

Rear Admiral Fletcher, commanding the second division, will take command of the entire squadron.

MEETING OF THE MEXICAN CABINET CALLED TODAY

Mexico City, Nov. 4.—There was no indication today that Provisional President Huerta has delivered any reply to the communication from the United States government telling him he must resign the presidency without loss of time, that he must not leave as his successor any of his adherents whom he might be able to control. In official quarters here as well as at the United States embassy emphatic denials were still made today as to the transmission or receipt of the communication from the American government.

A meeting of the Mexican cabinet, however, was called for today at which it appeared probable that the matter would come up for discussion.

The only reference to the incident in the local papers today was that which occurred in Associated Press dispatches from Washington. These, when shown to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires here, brought out a denial more or less technical, which was published here in connection with the despatches.

BERLIN PREDICTS SPEEDY LANDING OF U. S. TROOPS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Nov. 4.—The policy of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan in Mexico has resulted as was to be expected," says the Tagessblatt today in commenting on the Mexican situation, "and has left the United States with no alternative."

Firemen and Volunteers Prevent Big Property Loss By Fire Monday Evening

Fire which originated about 9:30 o'clock Monday night probably from a defective electric light wire in a store room in the rear of the hall of the Eagles lodge in South Park Place caused a loss estimated at $575. The loss is divided as follows: $250. The loss is divided as follows: $250.

Flory & Haven, owners of building, $250.00
Eagles Lodge, $250.00
Ratibun Cafe, $250.00
Crane-Bloss How Co., $250.00

The loss to tenants and owners of the building is fully covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered simultaneously by Patrolman Switchhart who patrols the beat on the south side of the square, and Adolph Anthony, a member of the Eagles lodge. Switchhart had already notified police headquarters from the district box, though he had not been able to locate the blaze accurately.

The patrolman was attracted by the smell of burning wood and being unable to locate the blaze and being impressed by the fact that the smoke was growing stronger, "played it safe" and called the department.

Almost the same moment a number of the members of the Eagles who were in the club room, were attracted by the smell of smoke. An investigation was made immediately and the smoke was traced to the store room in the rear of the lodge room on the third floor.

Anthony opened the door leading into the loft store room and was greeted by a cloud of smoke and tongues of flame. With Letter Carrier Daniel Murphy and others, a bucket brigade was formed and an attack made on the flames, pending the arrival of the firemen with a line of hose.

This bucket brigade did noble service and it was largely the result of their efforts which kept the blaze from gaining much headway.

The alarm sounded by Patrolman Switchhart called every piece of fire-fighting apparatus in the city to the scene and in a few brief moments several lines of hose were laid and streams were playing on the seat of the blaze. A line was carried up the front stairway and through the Eagles lodge room where an attack was made on the burning timbers of the roof. The fact that the roof was of tin delayed the firemen slightly but their attack was so determined and concentrated that the blaze was under control in a half hour or less.

A line of hose carried over the low buildings to the east of the burning structure placed the firemen in close contact with the seat of the blaze.

A deluge of water driven by a splendid press killed the flames.

The firemen who manned the line passed through the lodge room and entered in a low place, smoke-filled and void of air. A step of a few feet in most any direction would have brought them in personal contact with the flames. Their work was effected from this point of vantage.

Considerable damage was done to the lodge room of the Eagles. Great quantities of water poured down a short flight of steps onto the carpeted floor. This gradually leaked through the ceiling and eventually into the pool room occupied by Howard Nathanael. Here the pool and billiard tables had been covered with waterproofs at the first alarm and it is believed that the tables will escape serious damage.

The decorations in this room, however, will be practically ruined. The club rooms of the Eagles were unharmed, being in the front part of the building. The damage was confined to the storage room, the kitchen and the lodge room.

The prompt discovery of the blaze, and the fact that it started about 9:30 o'clock, probably saved the South Side of the square from a disastrous conflagration. The firemen have long feared the outbreak of a blaze in this locality as the age of the buildings and their construction is such that they would furnish good fuel for the flames.

Had the fire broken out after midnight and gained a little more headway before discovery, the losses would have been heavy and it would have been difficult for the firemen to keep it confined to the building where it originated.

Fireman Otis E. Myers, driver of East Newark department sustained a slight sprain of the muscles of his leg when a ladder on which he was standing, slipped from under him. He fell a short distance, landing on top of the ladder. Fortunately he escaped serious injury. The ladder was placed on a roof and rested against the burning structure. The roof of tin furnished little substantial foundation for the ladder and it went down.

Adolph Anthony, who fought the blaze with buckets of water from close range, suffered considerable discomfort from the smoke which he inhaled during his fire fighting activities but no serious results are anticipated.

It was after 11 o'clock before the fire apparatus left the scene.

HAGER OUT OF GAME ON ADVICE OF PHYSICIAN

Claud Hager, left half for Newark High and star player of this eleven, is out of the game, probably for the balance of the season because of injuries sustained in the game with East High at Columbus last Saturday. Hager's injuries are not serious but are of such a nature that his health and perhaps his life, might be imperiled by participation in a game within the next two or three weeks.

Hager was the chief ground gainer in the Columbus game and frequently he bored his way through East's line practically unaided by any interference. As a consequence, the muscles of his back were severely strained and his physician has advised him that it would be poor policy for him to again enter the fray.

In the Columbus game, Hager was compelled to play guardedly. The ligaments of his nose were badly torn in previous contest and the member was all but broken. He feared every scrimmage would result in a more serious injury.

Hager's absence will materially weaken the back field but Coach Millisor is confident that shifts can be made in the make-up of the team which will to a great extent overcome the weakness caused by Hager's absence from the team.

Regular practice this week is putting the team in good shape for the Saturday battle. Quarterback Meri Orr, who was injured in the Columbus game when he collided with Chick Hardley is able to attend his classes but it is doubtful if he will be able to get into the Saturday contest.

NEW METHOD FOR PRODUCING ANESTHESIA

Dr. H. B. Eaton, of Lindsey, Mont., was in Newark for a short time Monday as the guest of friends. Dr. Eaton has been spending several days conducting studies and experiments in the hospital and sanitarium of Dr. W. G. Crile, the celebrated Cleveland surgeon who recently announced to the world his discovery of a new method of producing anesthesia without after-effects of the old methods. Dr. Eaton is preparing to introduce the Crile method into several western hospitals in which he is interested. It is predicted the Crile treatment will revolutionize surgery.

FORMER COSHOCTON TAILOR SUICIDES AT BATTLE CREEK

Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 4.—Rather than enter bankruptcy Homer Jacobs, a merchant tailor, who came here from Coshocton, O., after the floods of last spring, killed himself here by swallowing poison. His body was found in his shop. Mrs. Jacobs said that her husband had been losing steadily and had a horror of going into bankruptcy.

Old Bobby Wallace, 39 Today, 18 Years in Major Leagues

What for a name for a baseball player is Roderick? Pretty punk, you say, and you speak true. And yet, by concealing that handicap under the nom de diamond of "Bobby," Roderick Wallace has managed to stick around big league ball lots for 18 years. Roderick was born thirty-nine years ago today, and Millvale, Pa., is his home village. He is almost a year the junior of Honus Wagner and a few months older than that gnarled and grizzled Gettysburg hero, Eddie Plank, but he broke into the major leagues before either of those veterans. When Cy Young retired from the diamond to his Ohio farm, Bobby Wallace became the dean of the big league fraternity, and the venerable and lanky Scotsman has done a pretty good job of deaning.

Third base is Bobby's home, although on various occasions he has done a pretty good job of short-stopping. Wallace broke into the big show in 1895, while Lajoie and Wagner did not don major league league uniforms until 1897. When the Cleveland National league club was sent to St. Louis, Wallace went to the Mount City. On the formation of the American league, Bobby cast his fortunes with the new club. For years he came midget near being the St. Louis ball club, and if the Browns had had a few more players as good as Bobby their history would be written very differently.

Wallace has broken into 300 batting company only a couple of years, yet in his brief he was the most feared swatter in the league, when he came up in a pinch. Few other players have made as close a study of the players of opposing clubs. It has been alleged that Bobby kept a card index of the weaknesses of his foes. Like old Christy Mathewson, Bobby always nursed his soup bone and never put an unnecessary strain upon it. Nearly all third basemen and shortstops will send the ball hurtling to first at top speed, whether or not necessity demands it. Bobby learned early in the game that his arm would last longer if he merely lobbed the leather, to first when there was plenty of time, and that such a throw was more likely to be accurate.

Bobby has taught lots of young fellows to play the game, and he has always impressed upon them the necessity for conserving their energy as much as possible, and make their

ASKS DOCTORS TO PRESCRIBE RHEUMA

Agent Greenburg Shows Faith in One Rheumatic Remedy After Six Years' Suffering.

"3229 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, Ill., March 17, 1913.—For six years, on and off, just as the weather would change, I have suffered agony from Rheumatism, the pains in my big toe, left foot, knees, hips and groins being almost unbearable. At such times I hardly dared take a step for fear of another attack. I spent many dollars and became thoroughly disgusted with so-called Rheumatic remedies, until I tried RHEUMA. I was buying some liniment when your Peoria, Ill., agent recommended your remedy. I have since asked physicians to prescribe the RHEUMA for Rheumatism. The train crews on the Rock Island Railroad, who saw me limping along using a cane, will verify my statements. Yours most sincerely, J. K. Greenburg, News Agent, Rock Island Railroad.

Anybody can afford to pay 50 cents to get rid of terrible Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout, Lumbago, and that's all RHEUMA costs at Evans' Drug Store and they say if it does not do all that is claimed for it, money back.

RHEUMA costs very little, but it is one of the best remedies you can find to drive Rheumatic poisons from the system and bring back perfect health.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleepless and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The newspaper says it expects that there will be a speedy landing of troops at Vera Cruz, but it fears that President Wilson under estimates the military difficulties in Mexico.

The belief that the policy of President Wilson was mistaken is also expressed by this newspaper which says that "while General Huerta may be an unsympathetic personality, yet he is the strong man whom Mexico needs."

The Vossische Zeitung joins with the Tageblatt in inferring that only the oil interests will be pleased over President Wilson's decision.

The Lokal Anzeiger is more sympathetic, saying it is not surprised that the "Washington has become weary of the comedy played by Provisional President Huerta and of the bogus elections for the presidency."

The Taegliche Rundschau says: "We Germans have an urgent interest in seeing a strong hand finally

What is Woman's Beauty But Health

And the Basis of Her Health and Vigor Lies in the Careful Regulation of the Bowels.

If woman's beauty depended upon cosmetics, every woman would be a picture of loveliness. But beauty lies deeper than that. It lies in health. In the majority of cases the basis of health, and the cause of sickness, can be traced to the action of the bowels.

The headaches, the lassitude, the sallow skin and the lusterless eyes are usually due to constipation. So many things that women do habitually conduce to this trouble. They do not eat carefully, they eat indigestible foods because the foods are served daintily and they do not exercise enough. But whatever the particular cause may be it is important that the condition should be corrected.

An ideal remedy for women, and one especially suited to their delicate requirements, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of women endorse highly, among them Mrs. C. S. Vance, of 511 S. Ray St., New Castle, Pa. At times she had spells of indigestion so severe that she thought she would die. Syrup Pepsin regulated her stomach and bowels, and she attributes her excellent health today to this remedy.

All the family can use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for thousands of mothers give it to babies and children. It is also admirably suited to the requirements of elderly people, in fact to all who by reason of age or infirmity cannot stand harsh salts, cathartics, pills or purgatives. These should always be avoided, for at best their effect is only for that day, while a genuine remedy like Syrup Pepsin acts mildly, but permanently.

MRS. C. S. VANCE

It can be conveniently obtained at any drug store at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. You will find it gentle in action, pleasant in taste, and free from gripping, and its tonic properties have a distinct value to women. It is the most widely used laxative- tonic in America today and thousands of families are now never without it.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

establish order in Mexico. No matter to whom the hand belongs, we demand that it interfere and do its duty. If it is not done the United States alone will bear the blame."

The communications made to Provisional President Huerta by the United States government caused a decided flurry on the Berlin stock exchange as well as in newspaper circles, but less impression on the foreign office where the belief was expressed that Washington would have scarcely have taken such a step without previously consulting the European governments in accordance with Secretary Bryan's recent assurances. No communication regarding the matter had been received at the foreign office up to 5 o'clock this afternoon either from Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, or from United States ambassador Gerard.

The foreign office is greatly interested in the re-establishment of order in Mexico and would like to see it brought about.

ARMED INTERVENTION GREAT MISTAKE SAYS GENERAL CARRANZA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Nogales, Mex., Nov. 4.—"I consider armed intervention on the part of the United States or any other power a great mistake," said General Carranza, leader of the Constitutionalists, last night when informed of the despatches from Mexico City telling of the ultimatum of the United States demanding the immediate retirement of Provisional President Huerta.

The Constitutional leader declined to make any further comment.

until he had heard from his agents in Washington.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson let the Mexican situation simmer a few hours today while he went to Princeton, N. J., to vote. The tension over this government's ultimatum to Huerta was not relieved by the President's absence, however, and just before Mr. Wilson left the White House he conferred with Secretary Bryan. All officials here were consistently silent over the notice to Huerta to vacate the provisional presidency of Mexico and seat no partisan. The understanding was that the attitude here is to make no announcements just now and await the next step.

President Wilson planned to be in touch with the situation practically every hour he is away today and to return to Washington tonight. The President left here at 10 o'clock this morning expecting to arrive in Princeton at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, cast his ballot, leave Princeton at 4:20 o'clock and arrive back in the capital at 9:25 tonight.

An air of confidence in official circles is taken to indicate that the United States is satisfied that practically all the great powers have agreed to support the administration's policy, at least to the extent of observing a strictly neutral attitude and allowing the United States to test its own plan for restoration of peace in Mexico. In the absence of any official statement, but on the basis of expressions of opinions by competent observers, it is believed that Huerta has been informed that practically all the powers diplomatically represented in the Mexican capital are disposed to defer to the United States the task of restoring constitutional government. Such a statement would be ordinarily accompanied by a pointed inquiry framed to develop Huerta's intentions. It is believed that the latest note may not disclose the purpose of the United States in the event that Huerta's answer was not satisfactory as such a declaration would mark practically the last step phase in negotiations.

Huerta's conference with the resident members of the diplomatic body is taken to bear out that theory. The opinion here is that it would naturally follow that the defacto president would call upon the diplomatists to make sure that the position of their governments had been correctly stated and that they were aligned with the United States.

Administration officials directly connected with the Mexican negotiations have adopted a policy of absolute silence, considering it inexpedient at this time to define exactly the course of action being pursued, and declining to comment one way or the other on the reports from Mexico City regarding the presentation of a summary note to Huerta requiring his immediate resignation. That this elimination of Huerta is a quid pro quo is admittedly the fundamental principle of the administration policy, but beyond this the successive steps taken or contemplated are not disclosed.

This is the 100th anniversary of the birth of Silicia Murphy, the first woman to save tobacco coupons. Her husband, Ambrosius Murphy, was the first man in Skitztown, N. J., to die of tobacco heart.

Mr. Ireland is not only one of the very best cartoonists but he is likewise a philosopher. Listen: You can eat chestnuts in the dark if you'll just say to yourself, 'The worm grew in the nut therefore the worm is nut.' Then you eat the nut and let the worm worry! It is really quite simple.

When a man accumulates money and property it is said of him that he has succeeded. But the one who lives an honorable, blameless life and dies poor is rated as a failure.

If a man asks you for your opinion, that is no sign he wishes to hear it. The probability is that he merely is seeking an opportunity to express his own opinion.

Generally speaking, the society of the "boned-head" is preferable to that of the "nut".

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

In Olden Times.

The world went well when I was young, and an-then-rose from every tongue; the politicians all were straight, their one desire to serve the state, and no one ever went to jail for swiping rolls of public bale. The merchants all wore pious grins, and never put sand in sugar bins. No customer was ever stung, long, long ago, when I was young. The world was sane when I was young, and every barrel possessed its lung. The women wore the Grecian bend and were not called on to defend outrageous styles which shock men's glims — they didn't advertise their limbs. And ere the Grecian bend was known, one woman filed a house alone; her dress was spread on bulging hoops as big as modern chicken coops; she didn't show her legs or heels, and people thought she went on wheels. Her praises by all bards were sung, long, long ago, when I was young; man used his head and not his lung. But things have retrograded since, and now the world is but a quince, and when I die the whole shebang will slip its trolley and go bang.

DIABETES YIELDS IN HOSPITAL

Place — Good Samaritan's Hospital in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, Alaska.

Patient—G. A. Hatch, a business man of Dawson.

Case—Diabetes, believed to be incurable the world over.

Prognosis—Hopeless, not only because physicians consider it so, but the condition of the patient was so extreme that death was believed to be not far away.

A friend of Hatch's heard about his plight, and called upon him. He told Hatch that five years ago he was in the same fix and sent to California for Fulton's Diabetic Compound, and it restored him to business. He stated that he kept some of it on hand and would loan Hatch some till more could be had from San Francisco.

To the surprise of Hatch's friends he was soon able to leave the hospital. Instead of being in his grave, four months later found him on a visit to his old home in Portland, Maine.

Passing through San Francisco he called and gave us this item in person.

If you have diabetes and are of middle age or over do not owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetic Compound before giving up. It can be had at Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 4.—[Special].—Our policy in Mexico or perhaps it would be well to say with Mexico seems to be that we want to Mexico decline that country to the extent of having all to say, as far as outside influence should be seeking the cooperation of foreign nations only in sustaining our position, but insisting that foreign nations shall not dictate terms to Mexico or set up a policy or recognize a government which we deem objectionable.

If a reader cannot understand just what is meant he will be in about the same position as the corps of Washington correspondents who spend half an hour twice a week with the president and as much time every day with the secretary of state trying to find out just what is going on and what it is intended to do.

Fending Off Intervention.

As a matter of fact, the administration is doing its utmost to prevent intervention, to prevent the necessity of sending troops into Mexico or making any hostile movement against any portion of the country or against any faction. That position would be much easier if this government had not absolutely determined that Huerta is to be recognized and that no government of which he is the head can ever have the support of the United States.

As long as Huerta is in control of Mexico the position of the United States will be peculiar, as we will not deal with him as a rightful head of affairs. Foreign nations are not quite so particular, but they do want their citizens and their property protected.

Postal Inequalities.

Before the days of the parcel post law packages could be sent cheaper to any part of Europe or to Asia cheaper than from point to point in the United States. And all the inequalities have not been straightened out. For instance, a book can be sent to England or Italy or to almost any part of the world from any place in the United States for the same rate of postage as it would take to send it across the street or from New York to Jersey City. With parcels it is different. There are some queer quirks in our postal system.

"Make Believe" Session.

"We are boys grown up," once remarked John Sharp Williams in the house of representatives. And every time congress comes upon a far-fetched session I am reminded of the Mississippians' words. The present exhibition is just what the children used to do when they called it "make believe." Congress is having a "make believe" session. In the words of Senator Ashurst, the senate "gimpongs" from Monday to Thursday and from Thursday to Monday without doing anything in legislation. The house meets every day because it has no way of adjourning three days at a time.

And all because President Wilson indicated that he didn't desire the session to adjourn. The Democrats are carrying out the letter of his wishes, but by telling their men to go home, that there will be no business transacted, they are making, sad havoc with the spirit of the president's directions.

DOUBT THE GOOD FAITH OF LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—The good faith of the legal representatives of New York, in seeking the extradition of Harry K. Thaw is attacked in a communication sent to Governor Felker by Judge Wm. M. Chase of Thaw's counsel. Judge Chase wrote: "The construction of the indictment obtained in New York county is additional evidence of the subterfuge which the attorney representing the state of New York is employing to obtain the aid of requisition proceedings for the return of an insane man to Matteawan not for the purpose of protecting himself and the public against his insane acts but for the purpose of punishment; and an insane man who is a resident of Pennsylvania and for whose conduct the state of New York is responsible only while he is actually with that state."

It became known today that William T. Jerome, special deputy attorney general of New York will file no papers in support of extradition. Governor Felker's decision is expected the last of this week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Rochester, Pa., Nov. 4.—When the Beaver River was at flood height last March, Clarence Mitchell wrote a note signed his name and address, and sealing it in a bottle, tossed the bottle into the flood. Last night he received a letter from Frank Warthing in Glasgow, Scotland, saying he had picked up the bottle on the Scottish coast two weeks ago. The bottle to reach its landing place had floated down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to the Gulf of Mexico, and making its way out into the Atlantic had drifted to Scotland.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and know that nobody will.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriant, dark and beautiful—all dandruff, scalp itching and falling hair stop.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance with a few days. Agents, Halls drug store.

IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

BY BARBARA BOYD

A Postcard Party

A pleasant little affair with which to start the social season is a postcard party. By now, every one is back in winter quarters. Vacations are over. Homes have been put in order and social festivities are being planned. Summer pleasures are still fresh in mind, and every one likes to tell where he has been and what he has done, and also everyone likes to hear all about his friends' jauntings. So that an affair that offers opportunities for such recitals is sure to be enjoyed by a little group of congenial people. And a postcard party is a very delightful form for such a gathering to take.

If the hostess wants to decorate in honor of the affair, she can put her own pretty postcards about on walls, using thumb tacks, or on tables and mantels. Maps and illustrations from literature or the travel magazines are also appropriate. But such an affair is so informal that decorations are scarcely necessary.

The invited guests should be asked to bring with them the picture postcards they have collected during their summer holiday. And if they have not taken a trip themselves, this fact need not debar them from coming. For nowadays, stay-at-homes are deluged with postcards by traveling friends, and often have a larger and more varied collection than the one traveling. If any cards contain messages, the owners would not wish read, a thin cover of tissue paper can be attached, such as is often found on specially dainty cards that postcard makers do not wish soiled by careless handling.

After the guests have arrived, and are gathered in friendly circle, one is selected by the hostess to repeat by postcard his summer travels. In response, he passes his cards around the group, with such explanatory remarks as he may wish to make. Others follow, and soon the room is a buzz of conversation about places of interest and adventures of travel.

Such wonderfully attractive postcards can now be secured, that such an affair is not only enjoyable but decidedly instructive. Those who are fortunate enough to have foreign postcards are apt to have copies of famous paintings and statuary in the art galleries abroad, and discussions of these and allied subjects pleasantly vary the geographical topics.

If the hostess wishes, she can ask her guests to come in their traveling costumes,—that is if suits are still presentable. Such a feature adds very much to the uniqueness of the affair, especially if campers or mountaineers (ladders are of the number. Many other little ways to vary the entertainment will come to mind, as many hostess studies her list of guests.

Refreshments should be informal in character, as the affair is not one that lends itself to anything elaborate or pretentious. But a most enjoyable evening can be passed in this way, and one that will not only give pleasure for the moment, but may suggest to the guests present many delightful outings for themselves for seasons to come.

ECZEMA ITCHED TERRIBLY ON HANDS

White Little Spots. Scratching Made Them Worse. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

1361 Marion Place, Chicago, Ill.—"I had eczema for four or five years. One day I came into the house and saw some white little spots coming out on my hands. A week later I saw that the spots began opening and in their places came deep holes. Later it took the form of some red little spots. Those spots itched me terribly and every night when I was asleep I always used to scratch and make the spots worse and make some new spots. The trouble caused loss of sleep. My hands cost my father a fortune."

"I used remedies for three and one-half years but they made me worse. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment two times a day, in the morning and at night before going to sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment afforded relief in one or two weeks, and it only took two months before the cure was complete." (Signed) Clement Levinson, Nov. 22, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of eczema of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are also most valuable for everyday use in the toilet, both and nursery, because they promote and maintain the health of the skin and hair from infancy to age. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-cp. skin book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Magical Effects of New Face Powder.

To maintain a clear, rosy, youthful complexion, there's nothing so simple to use and yet so effective as ordinary mercurized wax, which you can get at any drug store. Just apply the wax at night as you would cold cream. In the morning wash it off with warm water, and you never need it. It can't be washed off. The magical effect of this harmless home treatment. The wax causes the worn-out skin to come off in minute particles a little at a time, and soon you have entirely shed the offensive scale. The fresh young under skin now in evidence is so healthy and girlish looking, free from any appearance of artificiality, you wish you had heard of this marvellous complexion-renewing secret long ago.

To get rid of your wrinkles, here's a formula that is wonderfully effective. 1 oz. powdered salicylic acid, dissolved in 12 oz. witch hazel. Rub the face in this and you will be simply astonished at the results, even after the first trial. Advertisement.

The reporter, who is a little more than 18 years old, said he was employed on a Russian daily newspaper and worked on the Beilis case with a detective. Clues were followed by the reporter and the detective, and according to Shunkman, both arrived at the conclusion that Beilis is not guilty. After his activity in the case, Shunkman said he feared he might be implicated and fled the country. He has been living in Waukegan for several weeks.

GRANVILLE

No Candidates for Member of School Board in Historic Village.

Voters Must Write Names of Their Choice on Ballots—Grand Showing of Varsity Team.

[Special to the Advocate]

Granville Nov. 4.—The citizens of the village will be interested in the municipal election today. No candidates have been nominated for school board and the spaces on the ballot will necessarily be filled with the voter's choice for that office.

Mrs. S. L. Hoover of Columbus, who has been spending the past two weeks with Mrs. Elizabeth Spellman at her home on Broadway, left for Columbus Monday morning.

Joe Jeffries of Newark was a Granville visitor Monday evening.

The Travelers' club held its regular weekly meeting Monday. Several very interesting papers were read and discussed after which a social time was enjoyed in the parlors of the Baptist church.

Leon Stanford of Newark was in Granville on business Monday.

The Denison University football team will eat at a training table the remainder of the season. The team has a number of hard games before the season is finished and Coach Livingston believes this plan will keep the team in better condition.

The Granville College Lecture

course will present its first number on November 14. The course is exceptionally excellent this year and more will be said later when arrangements are completed.

Coach Livingston is very much pleased over the showing made by Denison against Ohio last Saturday. The team showed a vast improvement over the game of a week ago with Miami. This was probably due to the hard coaching that the team has been given in the last week. Ohio was absolutely unable to solve Denison's intricate forward passes, which were worked time after time for long gains. The play of the Red and White's ends was infinitely better than displayed against Miami. The flank positions have caused no end of worry, but it is thought now there will be no more trouble experienced the remainder of the season. Matthews, who was shifted from right half to the right end played an excellent game and will prove a valuable addition to the team in his new position. Thiele showed up to advantage Saturday. He displayed more aggressiveness than heretofore and appears to be more at ease. He was a new man for the position and is just learning the finer points of the game.

The work of the linemen was a vast improvement. Biggs at left tackle, Marsh at left guard, and Willis at right guard displayed more aggressiveness than they have been and made several tackles behind Ohio's line. Watkins, a sub guard, showed a possibility of better work when he was in the game a short time.

The prospects are bright for a victory over Cincinnati at the end of the week. Cincinnati was defeated here by the Baptists last year and will strive with the best of their ability to repeat the result of last season on the home grounds of the down-state team. However Cincy played a nothing to nothing game with Reserve Saturday and no cinch is expected by Livingston's men.

Through the resignation of Acting Governor James M. Fleider, Leon R. Taylor, Denison, ex-'07 becomes acting governor of the state of New Jersey. The resignation of Mr. Fleider as president of the state senate ends his term as acting governor and makes the present speaker of the assembly his successor in office.

Denison is honored at present by the arrival of a mechanic, who is widely known. Herr Ernst Kell has accepted an invitation from the President of Denison to work in the Physics department and will remain here for some time. He constructed an interferometer in the laboratory here at one time which was designed by President Chamberlain. This instrument is one of the finest known for use in the physics laboratory. His work will be watched with interest by students here.

Mr. Ober, general recruiting officer of the Y. M. C. A., will be a Granville visitor on Monday and Tuesday.

Theatres

Nancy Boyer.

Nancy Boyer and her clever company will present one of the feature plays—"Graustark"—this evening at the Auditorium.

The story of Graustark is a fascinating one. Lorry and Harry, two Americans meet the Princess on the train, and Lorry falls in love with her and both he and Harry follow her to Graustark where they find she is ruler. There they fall into all kinds of trouble, but like true Americans they fight it through and Lorry wins the beautiful Princess Yelive.

The scenic portion of the production is magnificent and the costumes are historically correct. Of course, Nancy does the role of the Princess Yelive and Mr. Henry Testa will be seen as Baron Dargos, one of the greatest parts ever written. Clifford Hyde as "Harry Anguish" gives us an abundance of good clean comedy. Fact is, there is an abundance of comedy throughout the play. Taken all in all, Graustark will prove to be one of the feature bills of the week. "Graustark" has never been presented at popular prices by anyone before and the Nancy Boyer company is the only company presenting this play at popular prices.

The play for the matinee Wednesday will be "The Amazons." Billie Burke's big comedy success.

Election returns will be read between the acts.

"The Red Rose."

"The Red Rose" not only a sensational musical comedy success but more so a play which exceeded all expectations, comes to the Auditorium theatre for one performance on Monday, November 10. It is unlikely that there ever was a musical comedy produced which furnished more real music and comedy than this one. Musically "The Red Rose" is one of the most alluring achievements in years in the field of light composition. The haunting melody of "Bohemia," the irresistible humor of "Queen of Vanity Fair," a capital part song, the whistleable air of "I'd Like to Go On A Honeymoon With You," and delicious "Love Divine" are a few of the musical gems.

Hartman Theatre.

John C. Fisher's "The Red Rose" now acclaimed not only as a great musical comedy, but more so as a riot of frivolity, an orgy of fun, a cyclone of beauty and a feast of music, will be seen at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 11-12, with a matinee Wednesday. From all over the country has come comment on its almost overpowering beauty, the multitude of beautiful girls in the company, the sweetness and seductiveness of the music, the panorama of color and the atmosphere of Parisian hilarity, all of which should carry a local audience almost literally off its feet. However, a "red rose" atmosphere will pervade every home in which there is any sort of a musical instrument after the visit of the company to this city.

"Excuse Me," a farce that sets forth the incidents of a journey by rail from Chicago to Reno will again be seen at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13, 14, 15, with matinee Saturday.

That Is True

"Coffee drinking almost ruined my health before a heart and nerve specialist informed me that coffee was my whole trouble.

"I am 53 years of age, and from boyhood up to about the year 1900 I was strong and well, could eat any kind of food day or night, slept soundly, and it was said that I had no nerves.

"I began to suffer from indigestion and was getting sleepless and nervous. I took medicine, kept at work, and stuck to my coffee—the harm of it was never suggested to me.

"One morning just after dressing I collapsed, and for six weeks I was very, very sick. But I pulled through. After another rest I did not improve, but became worse. My heart got very bad, so weak at times that I would faint. I also suffered from constipation.

"In February, 1908, I was obliged to resign my position as manager.

"Finally in July, 1911, I came to San Francisco to consult the best heart and nerve specialist to be found, and was directed to Dr. . . . He made a thorough examination and several blood tests. He told me that the trouble was with my heart and nerves—brought about by coffee; that the caffeine contained in coffee was poison to me; and to stop the use of coffee absolutely and immediately. Since that time I have not tasted one drop of coffee.

"When I stopped coffee, I thought, what shall I drink. Milk has a tendency to constipate me; cold water is all right in its place, but it doesn't belong on the breakfast table. So I concluded to try Postum. It is delicious with cream and sugar. I drink it whenever I can find it, and I enjoy it as well as I once did coffee.

"My normal weight was about 170 lbs. and I had been as low as 133. In three weeks I was greatly improved; in six months I began to feel like my old self, and now, ten months after I stopped coffee, I am about well and weigh 178 lbs. I have not been constipated once—not once! My stomach seems as good as ever; I sleep well, feel well and I am well.

"I am sure my good doctor's advice, 'stop coffee,' is the secret of my improvement.

"Of course I 'have it in' for coffee, and why shouldn't I? See what it cost me, my health, position and thousands of dollars.

"Now in conclusion, you are at liberty to use my name any way you wish. I enclose names of my doctors. My only object is to help other afflicted persons. I don't want any compensation, and would not accept any."

Postum now comes in two forms.

Regular Postum must be well boiled.

Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A spoonful dissolves in a cup of hot water and, with sugar and cream, makes a perfect cup instantly.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds.

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION OF USELESS GIVING

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM.
New York, Nov. 4.—The S. P. U. G., which may be recognized as the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving, met with such success in its campaign last Christmas that it is on the warpath early again this year against the useless Christmas presents.

The "S. P. U. G." are mainly department store girls, who under the leadership of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Miss Anne Morgan and others, who found their year's savings annually depleted by the obligation to contribute towards presents for men and women "higher up." The idea of freeing themselves from this "Christmas graft" and all forms of useless giving spread like wildfire and many others joined the crusade. The object of the society is to eliminate by co-operative effort the custom of giving indiscriminately at Christmas and to further in every way the true Christmas spirit of unselfish and independent thought, good will and sympathetic understanding of the real needs of others.

The Human Procession

Eden Philpotts may not be the greatest living novelist, but he has a host of admirers on both sides of the Atlantic who are firmly convinced that he is entitled to that distinction. The man who has made Dartmoor and its people famous throughout the world was born in India fifty-one years ago today, the son of an English officer and political agent. As a boy he returned to the land of his fathers, and was educated at Plymouth, after which he became a clerk in an insurance office. It was his ambition to become an actor, and he spent some time in studying for the stage, but abandoned the art on finding that his histrionic ability did not justify perseverance. It was twenty years ago that he published his first book, "Some Everyday Folks," which was followed by "Down Dartmoor Way," in 1897. "Lying Prophets" was given to the world, and England was brought to a realization that a new literary horizon, "Children of the Mist," published in 1898, spread his fame to America, and within a short time 15,000 copies had been sold on this side of the ocean.

The novelist lives in a beautiful villa on one of the hills of Torquay, overlooking Torbay, in South Devon. His principal recreation is the growing of flowers, vines and shrubs, and his home is as veritable hothouse of roses and heather-scented wilderness of Dartmoor, and the people of that country have been made as real to his readers as if they were next-door neighbors. In writing a Dartmoor novel, Mr. Philpotts spends months studying the country and people which he proposes to immortalize. In that period of preparation nothing escapes the eyes and ears of the novelist. His novels are marvels of accurate description, but this virtue may seem a fault to those who like their fiction full of action, while those who have a preference for the "and so they were married-and liver-happy-ever-after ending will not like Philpotts. He is a rationalist and a realist, and he has painted life as it is, and not as it might be or should be.

An attitude toward the Deity that may be common, but rarely finds expression, is expressed by Mr. Cramp-horn, one of the characters in "Sons of the Morning":

"As to the Almighty," he said, "my rule is to treat him same as he treats me—same as we'n taught to treat any other neighbor. . . . If God sends gude things, I'm just to thank him 'pon my bended knees, an' hope respectful for long continuance; if He sends bad—then I cool off an' wait for better times. Ban't my way to return thanks for nought. 'No song, no supper,' as the saying is. . . . ban't me that changes, but him. I'm a steadfast man. . . . When the Lord's hand's laid on me, I go dancin' and frolic-

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first, but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the security of your hair. No in afore him, like David afore the ark, an' pray long prayers week-days so well as Sundays; but when Hem contrary with me, an' minded to blow hot an' cold, from no fault of mine—why, dammy, I get cranny to. Can't help it. Built so. 'Pears to me as 'tis awfully a brute dog as'll lick the hands that beats 'em.

In the preface to "Widecombe Fair," his latest Dartmoor book, Mr. Philpotts announces that his "modest comedy of Dartmoor" has reached its conclusion. A score of novels with a Dartmoor setting have come from his pen, and it may be that he has exhausted the subject, but there are many of his admirers who will not agree with him. In his last book, "The Joy of Youth," he has attempted a new field, and has tried it admirably, but after Florence and Val-lombrosa and Lake Como one turns with a sigh from sunny Italy and longes for the moor and heather, the bleak tors and the cascading streams of Dartmoor.

First Things

The first settlement on the site of the present city of Dayton, O., was made early in the last decade of the eighteenth century, and the town of Dayton was laid out 118 years ago today, Nov. 4, 1795. The city is now almost fully recovered from the effects of the terrible flood which swept over it only a few months ago. The "Cash Register City" has long been famous as a manufacturing center. It was incorporated as a town in 1805, but remained unimportant until the opening in 1829, of the Miami canal, connecting it with Lake Erie. Additional connections with the outside world were soon acquired by the construction of the Mad River & Lake Erie and other railroads, including the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, the Dayton & Western, the Dayton & Michigan, the Dayton & Cincinnati, the Dayton, Xenia & Belpre and the Greenville & Miami. In 1845 a hydraulic canal was built, giving the city an immense water power, and Dayton soon became one of the foremost industrial cities of interior America. For many years Dayton paper mills supplied a large part of the west.

George W. Bower.
In a late edition of your paper I note the funeral notice of Geo. W. Bower. I enclose clipping from the Los Angeles Times of Aug. 23, which may be of interest to his friends in Newark if same has not been previously received there.

I frequently met him in Los Angeles where we talked about the old home town and we had many pleasant memories to exchange.

I was unaware of his death for some time, in fact, was expecting him to visit me as per previous arrangement, and called at the office of General Last where he made his headquarters, to inquire for him. General Last informed me of his death and gave me the enclosed clipping.

Geo. Bower had many friends in this part of the West, both in military and business circles, all of whom speak highly and affectionately of him. His genial presence will be greatly missed by all who were so fortunate as to have known him.

Yours truly,
C. F. KOCHENDORFER.

This is Guaranteed to Stop Your Cough

Makes this Family Supply of Cough Syrup as follows and Save 50.

This plan makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer an ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix a pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarse, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, as rich in balsamic and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, though never successfully. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"OW!" Corns? Use "GETS-IT"

"GETS-IT," the New-Plan Corn Cure, Makes Any Corn Shriveled, Vanish.

You'll say, "It does beat all how quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's almost magic." "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply it. Corn pains stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fussing with plasters that chafe on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, files or razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poisoning. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated flesh. It "gets" every corn, wart, callus and bunion you've got.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago.

ARGUMENTS IN THE GOVERNMENT'S SUIT AGAINST MONOPOLY

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 4.—Argument for the defense was continued today by Judge W. B. McHugh of Omaha, when the hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the International Harvester company as a monopoly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law was resumed in the United States district court. The defense expected to conclude its plea tomorrow. After Edward P. Grosvenor had concluded the first portion of his final argument for the government late yesterday Judge McHugh opened for the defense but scarcely had time to lay the groundwork of his argument before adjournment was taken. He asserted that the government had not properly concerned itself with the facts in the case and declared the combination of harvester companies was necessary to expand their foreign business.

Opening of Panama Canal Will Revolutionize Our Trade

By ADAM W. KIRKALDY, Professor of Finance at Birmingham University, England

So far as the outside world is concerned, the greatest effect of the opening of the canal will probably be to put commerce and trade out of the groove and cause an ALL ROUND MODERNIZATION OF BUSINESS METHODS.

The old will have to be scrapped, friction among the factors of production will have to be eliminated, and capital and labor in competing countries will have to learn to work harmoniously together. Socially and economically this will effect a very great result. Is it WHAT AMERICA DREAMED OF when she entered upon this stupendous undertaking?

THE CANAL WILL ADD ENORMOUSLY TO THE COMMERCIAL FACILITIES BETWEEN THE VARIOUS REGIONS OF THE AMERICAN CONTINENT AND THE ADJACENT ISLANDS; HENCE IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS MAY BE EXPECTED.

The West India islands will enter upon a new period of prosperity, especially when the internal combustion engine takes the place of steam and oil replaces coal. English business and fiscal methods will have a great effect on making the West Indies important to shipping and thus assist the development of local industries, especially the export of raw material.

The comparatively unprogressive states of CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA WILL UNDERGO REMARKABLE DEVELOPMENTS owing to increased immigration of Europeans and increased trade. These local benefits will be the chief and ample justification for the construction of the canal.

HEAVY VOTE

down persons attempting to vote illegally and "strong arm men" were on the lookout for "scurvils" who, according to leaders of the Fusion campaign had been employed in some quarters to intimidate voters. The more prominent candidates for mayor are Edward E. McCall, the Tammany nominee and John Purroy Mitchell, the young man named by the Fusionists, although the Independence League and the Socialists are also in the race. Republicans, Progressives and Independent Democrats are represented among the Fusionists, who have made their main issue the defeat of Tammany.

The claims of the leaders were not altered at the eleventh hour. Their final words were:

"We will win by a tremendous plurality. It will be a veritable landslide against Murphy and his ticket."—John P. Mitchell.

"I am confident of my election. I have never had the slightest doubt as to the result, even when the newspapers' attacks against me were most bitter."—Edward E. McCall.

"This is going to be a landslide for our whole ticket. We will elect every candidate, with McCall at the head, with a plurality of more than 150,000."—Charles F. Murphy.

New York State Election.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Elections are being held throughout New York state today for the selection of members of the assembly, a chief judge and associate judge of the Court of Appeals and nine Supreme court judges, two senators, one to succeed Stephen J. Stillwell, of the Twenty-first, who is now in Sing Sing prison and another to succeed Franklin D. Roosevelt of the Twenty-sixth, who resigned to become assistant secretary of the navy, were to be chosen. Successors are also to be elected to Congressmen Timothy D. Sullivan, deceased, and Francis Burton Harrison, resigned.

In Sulzer's district the vote up to mid-afternoon was larger in proportion than in any other in the city. More than fifty percent of the registered district vote was cast before noon.

Sulzer's supporters said all indications pointed to his election by a substantial plurality.

Throughout the city there were indications of an unusually heavy vote, evidencing the great interest in the fight between Tammany and Fusion.

About 25 arrests for alleged irregularities in voting had been made up to noon. Among those arrested were four Columbia students.

Although few arrests were reported during the forenoon, there were disturbances at polling places in various parts of the city owing to the challenging of many voters. In the second assembly district, where there is a hot contest between Alfred E. Smith, present Democratic speaker of the assembly, and the Fusion candidate, Morris Cohen, adherents of both were bombarded with rotten eggs and vegetables when they appeared at the polling places.

PREDICT LARGEST VOTE EVER CAST IN CINCINNATI

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—Mild, sunshiny weather brought out a large early vote in the municipal election here today. Indications were that the largest vote ever cast in a municipal election would be polled. The registration exceeded that of any previous year, and the fine weather was expected to bring out the full vote. The campaign managers of Henry T. Hunt, who is candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket expressed confidence in his election, while the campaign managers of the Republican candidate, Frederick S. Spiegel, declared the weather augured for the success of their candidate.

Up to 1 o'clock the votes cast for mayoralty candidates were the best polled in Cincinnati in any previous year, and here on the prediction made earlier in the day that the vote would be a record breaker. There was practically no disorder at any point in the city. Few arrests were made of illegal voters. Detective Robert Ecker of the local police department was arrested by a duty sheriff for an alleged violation of the election laws. It was reported that Ecker blocked the doorway of one of the election booths and intimidated voters.

Four Mayoralty Candidates

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Akron, O., Nov. 4.—With four candidates for mayor, Democrat, Republican, Progressive and Socialist, local voters went to the polls early this morning and it was predicted that the vote will be the largest cast in the history of municipal elections here.

Baker the Favorite.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cleveland, O., Nov. 4.—The bright weather which caused Cleveland's first non-partisan election today didn't out as unusually heavy early vote. At a local election of 32,000 out of a probable 50,000 votes had been cast. In the south and east sections of the city more than half the voters had balloted at that hour.

Demy a Favorite.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Zanesville, O., Nov. 4.—A large vote is being polled here today and the voting is slow and tedious. The mayoralty campaign is a five-cornered one with the betting even on Schofield, Dem. rep., against the field.

Women in Charge.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, Nov. 4.—Women clerks and squires were the only business duty at the state house today. All state officials and employees, most of whom live in other towns, had gone home to vote. Since

Favor Prohibition Candidate

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chillicothe, O., Nov. 4.—A peculiar situation has developed here at the election today, some 200 saloon men and their friends have been voting and working against James A. Cahill, Democratic candidate for re-election as mayor in favor of Joseph Williams, the Prohibition candidate. The men say they are against Cahill because he made them close their places on Sunday. A very light vote is being cast except for board of education.

Many Citizens Tickets.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Election day in Indiana broke clear and brisk. Every city and incorporated town in the state is voting for municipal officers. In many places the election has been complicated by the introduction of citizens tickets, in addition to three major parties tickets.

Four Candidates FOR GOVERNORSHIP

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Boston, Nov. 4.—Rain was falling throughout Massachusetts when the voting began today. Balloting started early in Boston and several other cities, but as it will continue into the evening in many places, the returns in the contest for governor between Gardner, Republican; Bird, Progressive; Walsh, Democratic and Foss, Independent, are expected to be very late.

VOTING IS BRISK IN NEW JERSEY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.—Voting for governor and members of the general assembly was brisk in some parts of New Jersey for an hour or two after the polls opened, but in the greater part of the state it was light. The weather is fair and warm.

The managers of the three candidates for governor expect there will be heavy voting toward the end of the day and they are planning to get out every vote possible. In certain counties there are warm contests for state senator and members of the lower house, the leaders expected to poll a full vote. The total registration is about 60,000 short of the 420,000 votes cast last fall for the presidential candidates.

Oregon Vote Heavy.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—There was a heavy vote throughout Oregon today on bills passed by the last legislature referred to the people. Women vote this year for the first time at a general election. The workmen's compensation act and the measure providing for sterilization of habitual criminals are the most important issues involved.

Fears of Rioting.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Gary, Ind., Nov. 4.—There were fears of rioting incidental to the election here today. Extra policemen and deputies were on duty and state troops of neighboring towns were in readiness to respond to a call for help. Only minor clashes were reported during the early voting. The fight here is over the mayoralty, the opposing candidates being Thomas Knotts the incumbent and R. O. Johnson, the Fusion candidate.

WOMEN VOTE ON "WET" AND "DRY"

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Women voters today took part in "wet" and "dry" elections in 24 Illinois cities and towns. Results in several of the local offices are said to hinge upon the strength the recently enfranchised voters show in mustering their forces at the polls.

Bitter Mayoralty Fight.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—With each side declared to be on guard against the employment of some unexpected ruse by the other, Progressives and Democrats of Louisville engaged in the final fight of their bitter mayoralty campaign today. A crisp bright morning brought out an early vote.

Fine Election Weather.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Except in spots the voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy poll was looked for toward the close of the balloting. The weather is fine. The voting centered largely about councilmen and the county officers, the reform administration under the leadership of Mayor Blankenburg endeavoring to gain, through a Fusion movement, control of city councils.

Of course, it is possible to turn a crank down, but he always turns up again.

A stitch in time is worth two needles in a haystack.
